Discussion Questions for Acts 4:32-5:11

- 1. Read Acts 4:32-37
  - a. Describe the unity and generosity of the early Christian community.
  - b. What do we learn about their shared values and priorities?
  - c. How can these principles apply to our modern Christian communities?
- 2. Read Acts 5:1-11
  - a. Describe Ananias and Sapphira's actions and motives.
  - b. Why do you think God responded as He did to their deceit?
  - c. What lessons can we draw from their story about honesty, integrity, and the fear of God?

- 3. Personal Reflection Questions
  - a. How can the unity and generosity of the early Christian community in Acts 4:32-37 inspire greater unity within your own Christian community?
  - b. What values and priorities do you hold dear in your faith, and how do they align with the shared values of the early Christians?
  - c. In what ways can you apply the principles of unity, generosity, and mutual support in your modern Christian community, even if communal living is not practiced?
  - d. Reflect on the cautionary tale of Ananias and Sapphira in Acts 5:1-11. How can you guard against the allure of deceit and personal gain within your faith community?
  - e. What role does honesty and integrity play in your daily life and interactions with your Christian community?
  - f. How can you nurture a healthy fear of God, a deep reverence for His principles, and a commitment to truthfulness in your actions and motives?